

House Resolution No. 971

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize Bill Scully, an esteemed resident of Lee's Summit, Missouri, who has distinguished himself as the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals 2004 Middle School Principal of the Year; and

Whereas, Bill Scully was one of approximately 400 middle school principals from across Missouri to be considered for the prestigious 2004 Principal of the Year award; and

Whereas, Bill Scully began teaching and coaching at Ervin Middle School in Hickman Mills in 1993 and went on to serve as the assistant principal at Sherwood High School from 1995 to 1997 and as the principal of Sherwood Middle School from 1997 to 1998; and

Whereas, Bill Scully moved to Raymore-Peculiar Middle School in 1998, where he served as assistant principal until 2001, when he accepted the role of principal; and

Whereas, Bill Scully has a unique relationship with his students and connects with them on an individual and personal level, encouraging them to realize their goals and fostering within them the desire to perform to the best of their ability; and

Whereas, Bill Scully received his Bachelor's degree from the University of North Florida in 1983, earned his Master's in Education in 1995 and an Educational Specialist degree in 1997 at Central Missouri State University, and then commenced study for his doctorate at the University of Missouri-Columbia; and

Whereas, Bill Scully remains totally devoted to his beloved wife, Alisa:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Bill Scully upon his most worthy receipt of the Missouri Association of Secondary School Principals 2004 Middle School Principal of the Year award, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to play an integral role in the lives of countless Missouri youngsters as the Principal of Raymore-Peculiar Middle School; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Bill Scully.
